EDUCATION

B.A. History, with coursework in art history, archives, and material culture
Senior thesis: "Provenance and Public Interpretation of a Mid-19th-Century Textile Collection"

EXPERIENCE

Collections Research Intern, Civic History Museum

- Cataloged 140 object records in the collections database, including condition notes and source citations
- Conducted provenance research on a loan group of 12 domestic textiles using accession files and city directories
- Drafted 8 exhibition labels and a 900-word introductory panel for "Home Work: Cloth and Care"
- Assisted the registrar with object movement checklists and condition photography before installation

Gallery Volunteer, University Art Study Center

- Led 14 public tours connecting collection objects to course themes
- Processed a small artist archive: foldered correspondence, wrote folder-level descriptions, and created a finding aid

PROJECTS

Home Work: Cloth and Care (student-curated exhibition)

- Selected 18 objects, wrote the interpretive framework, and coordinated installation with collections staff
- Attendance: 620 visitors over four weeks; used for two undergraduate seminars

Digital exhibit: Mapping a Textile Collection

- Built an Omeka exhibit linking catalog records, scans, and short interpretive essays
- Documented contested ownership notes rather than presenting a single uncontested origin story

SKILLS

Collections documentation, label writing, archival description, Omeka, spreadsheets, public tours
